

Gentleman who says he is 6,300 years old and owns every insane asylum in the country, is being held by police of Danville, Ind. Can't find out who he is.

"Democrats everywhere admit that Brother Bill is only man they fear next November."—Brother Charlie Taft, trying to cheer himself up and forget about the money he is spending for "Brother Bill's" campaign.

All the Democrats we have heard talking about it seemed to be scared to death that Taft would be defeated for the renomination, and their candidate would have to fight a real man of some sort.

Home Rule bill debate still going on in British parliament. Biggest problem government has to face is conciliation of Orangemen of Ulster.

Guthrie, Okla., jury has decided it is not burglary to break into store and steal intoxicating liquors in prohibition territory.

Certainly not! It's justifiable desperation.

Republican and Big Business strength of senate was increased today when Newell Sanders, of Tennessee, took oath as successor to Late Senator Robert L. Taylor.

Jury at N. Y. has held that Mrs. Genevieve Nicodemus was insane at time she murdered her husband, Frank, but is all right again now, and can go free.

"If we don't go forward, we go backward."—T. Roosevelt, enticing votes at Easton, Pa.

Quite so, Theodore! And if we go back to the same president we had four years ago, we'll be going backwards, and therefore shall not be able to go forward!

"A Democrat who can make himself more acceptable to Standard Oil Trust than Mr. Taft can hardly be counted a progressive. A man is known by company he keeps, and Mr. Underwood's calling list was bad enough before Rockefeller's name was put at the head of it."—W. J. Bryan.

Evidently neither Underwood nor Harmon are going to get that Bryan vote.

State treasurer of Colorado docked Gov. Shafroth five days pay for time he was away on recent business trip.

Good Lord! Imagine the small incomes of some of our leading "statesmen" if this rule were applied to all office holders.

Now, there's President Taft, for instance!

Smallpox epidemic in state penitentiary of Missouri at Jefferson City, has alarmed authorities. Strict quarantine being observed.

Doctor vs. Lawyer.

A lawyer got into an argument with a physician over the relative merits of their respective professions.

"I don't say that all lawyers are crooks," said the doctor, "but you'll have to admit that, your profession doesn't make angels of men."

"No," retorted the attorney, "you doctors certainly have the best of use there."
